BRIBERY CHARGES AGAINST OFFICIALS

Pat Calhuon Among Those Indicted by Grand Jury.

BAIL IS FIXED IN SUM OF $10,000

Many Railway Officials and Others at San Francisco Indicted on Various Counts by the Grand Jury—Statement of Mr. Calhoun.

San Francisco, Cal., May 27.—The grand jury Friday returned bribery indictments as follows:

Against President Patrick Calhoun, of the United Railroads, fourteen.

Against assistant to the president, Thornwall Mullaly, fourteen.

Against Attorneys Tierey L. Ford and W. M. Abbott, of the legal department, fourteen each.

Against Abraham Reuf, fourteen.

Against President Louis Glass, of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, two.

Against Theodore V. Halsey, formerly an agent of that corporation, one.

Reuf and Schmitz are also charged with bribery in connection with the fixing of the gas company's rate, and with receiving $5,000 in the United Railroads' franchise deal.

The indictments against Glass are additional to the eleven indictments already returned against him on the charge of bribing supervisors to refuse a competitive telephone franchise. The indictment against Halsey is for the same offense.

Superior Judge Coffey fixed bail in the sum of $10,000 on each of the charges.

San Francisco, May 27.—Patrick Calhoun late Friday night issued a lengthy statement addressed to the American in which he says the returning of indictments against himself and associates is another step in the program to gain political control of this city by Rudolph Spreckels and others, for selfish purposes through a combination with the labor union party. Mr. Calhoun says:

"The evidence is now complete that self-confessed criminals have been retained in the board of supervisors to do the bidding of Spreckels and his fellows. In the language of one of the prosecutors, they are merely 'good dogs.' Their evidence has been purchased and their services secured through immunity contracts.

"I charge that the motives of Mr. Spreckels and his associates are base and malicious, that his plans are selfish and injurious to the welfare of this community; that they seek through the assassination of character to injure the United Railroads, and further their own financial plans, and inspired strikes, violence, destruction of property, boycotts, and these indictments are each a part of Spreckel's plans to confiscate the property of the United Railways to replace our street railroads by lines owned by Spreckels and to that end to control the politics of San Francisco. I would be surprised that any body of American citizens could be induced to find these indictments if I did not know the methods which have been pursued by Spreckels' corps of hired detectives and his constant access to the members of the grand jury who have been misled by his professions of virtue.

"To my friends hroughout the entire country I give the assurance that these indictments are not founded on facts and that there is no evidence that could justify them, and that my associates and I will befully vindicated."

Deserter Killed by Sentry.

St. Louis, May 27—Elmer Martin, awaiting trial at Jefferson barracks for deserting from the coast artillery at Fort Barrancas, Florida, was killed by Sentry Joseph Cothran Friday night. Martin had escaped from Cothran, who found him hiding in the forest. Cothran says that Martin refused to surrender and that then he fired. Edward V. Anderson, also awaiting trial for desertion, escaped with Martin, and has not been apprehended.

TWENTY-TWO-YEAR OLD CASE.

Appeals Court Affirmed Manslaughter Verdict Against Solomon.

Atlanta, May 27.—In rendering its decision Friday affirming the verdict of the lower court in the case of Mark Solomon versus the state, from Pulaski superior court, under which Solomon was convicted of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary, the state court of appeals appeared to regret the necessity for such action.

The crime of which Solomon was convicted was committed in Pulaski county, Nov. 15, 1885. He was then a boy of less than eighteen years. When returning home from a party or visit to some girls, he and another boy, Oscar Newman, eighteen years of age, got into a difficulty in which, it was stated, Newman was stabbed and later died as a result of his wounds.

For some strange reason, though, Solomon tried to have the case against him tried and disposed of, it was postponed from time to time and was not brought to trial until a few months ago, nearly twenty-two years after the commission of the alleged crime. In the meantime Solomon had grown up, married and raised a family. He is an expert railroad engineer, and operates fast trains on the Atlantic Coast Line.

It is understood one of the judges of the court has already mentioned the case to the prison commission, and it is more than likely that the pardoning board will be asked to take it up for action at its next meeting. The general belief is that executive clemency will be granted.

THEODORE TILTON DEAD.

American Author Passes Away in the City of Paris.

Paris, May 27.—Theodore Tilton, the American author who has been ill in this city for several days of pneumonia, died Saturday.

In 1874 Mr. Tilton preferred serious charges against Henry Ward Beecher, who had been his pastor and intimate friend, and demanded damages of $100,000. After the tragedy which wrecked his career, Mr. Tilton came to Paris, where he has lived a solitary existence. With a slender income, derived principally, it is understood, from a single share of stock in a New York newspaper, coupled with meager royalties from his literary works which has been continued in a desultory manner, sufficed, apparently, to meet his modest demands; at least his few intimates never heard him complain of lack of funds.

Longshoremen Make Charges.

New York, May 27.—Union leaders in the longshoremen's strike claim to have evidence against one of the steamship companies of a specific violation of the immigration law, and declare that this evidence will be submitted to Immigration Commissioner Wichorn in the form of an affidavit. It is charged in the affidavit that the Royal mail steamship Tagus, which is docked at the Wilson line pier, on her last voyage from the West Indies, brought in ten men in addition to her regular crew, to assist in handling cargo. These men, who were taken on board the Tagus at a Jamaican port, have been used for that purpose since the steamer arrived, the union leaders charge.

Attacks Made on Japanese.

Tokio, May 27.—A report from the consul for Japan in San Francisco confirms the news of attacks made recently upon Japanese restaurant keepers in that city. The public here is indignant, but the press refrains from any hasty comment, trusting the Washington government to prevent the repetition of similar occurrences. The disturbance occurred in a restaurant conducted by Japanese on Folsom street and was followed by an attack upon a Japanese house on the opposite side of the street. The trouble arose over the expulsion of two white men from a Japanese restaurant on Eighth street.

Tornado Strikes Texas.

Fort Worth, Tex., May 27.—A destructive tornado is reported to have struck a section of country about 40 miles north of here. Three persons are reported killed by the storm.

MRS. FREENEY GUILTY, BUT JURY ASKS MERCY

Dodge County Woman Convicted of Killing W. P. Harrell.

JURY WAS OUT ALL THE NIGHT

Mrs. Freeney Claims that She Killed Harrell as Only Last Resort and In Protection of Herself and Her Fireside.

Eastman, Ga., May 227.—The jury on the case of Mrs. Sallie Freeney, charged with the murder of W. P. Harrell, after being out all night, returned a verdict of guilty, with recommendation of mercy.

At a late hour Friday afternoon the judge charged the jury. The speeches were closed with a strong and impressive speech by Solicitor Eschol Graham.

Consternation was caused among the attorneys for the defense when Judge Martin announced that the state would have the opening and closing arguments. The defense had not sworn in any of the twenty-five witnesses subpoenaed.

In making her statement, Mrs. Freeney either of her own accord or at the suggestion of her attorneys, handed to the jury several receipts for house rent, which was material evidence. These were examined by the jury at the request of the defens.

Judge Martin contended that this was the introduction of evidence, and deprived the defense of the closing speech. The defense fought hard against this, but the judge ruled against them.

W. P. Harrell, a well known man of this section, was shot to death several months ago by Mrs. Freeney at the latter's home.

Mrs. Freeney claimed that Mr. Harrell, from whom she rented her house and supposedly called to collect his rent, made improper proposals to her and was at the time intoxicated. She asserted he took hold of her and when she repulsed him, he struck her.

Mrs. Freeney declared she killed Mr. Harrell only as a last resort and in protection of herself and her home.

ABRUZZI ARRIVES.

Noted Explorer is to Participate in Jamestown Naval Ceremonies.

Washington, May 27.—The duke of Abruzzi arrived here Saturday aboard the Italian cruiser Variose, flagship of the squadron sent to the United States by the Italian government to participate in the naval ceremonies attending the opening of the Jamestown exposition.

Count Massiglia, the Italian consul general, was one of the first to greet the noted Italian explorer. The consul general announced that the duke would not life ashore while in New York, but would remain on board his ship.

Just how long the duke will remain in New York is not known. He has received numerous invitations to attend affairs, and if he accepts half of them, his stay will be lengthy. While here he will probably meet Commander Peary. The duke himself is a well known arctic explorer, his record for "furtherest" having been beaten only by Peary.

Whisky Election in Lowndes.

Valdosta, Ga., May 27.—The prohibitionists have succeeded in securing the required number of names to a petition for an election on the whisky question, and the ordinary has named Monday, June 24, as the day for the election. The campaign from now until that time promises to be hot on both sides.

Road Blocked Twelve Hours.

Birmingham, Ala., May 27.—Northbound freight train No. 52, Alabama Great Southern railway, was ditched near Codling Ala., Friday afternoon, ten cars of lumber being thrown from the track. The road was blocked for twelve hours. No one was injured.

FEDERAL AID ENDORSED.

Schools Favor Bill Proposing Government Appropriations.

Atlanta, May 27.—At the conference of the principals and presidents of board of trustees of the new district agricultural schools, together with the curriculum committee, appointed by the trustees of the state university, held in the senate chamber, a resolution was passed, by a unanimous vote, which comes in the nature of an indorsement of federal aid to education.

This resolution indorsed and urged the passage by congress of the Davis bill, under which it is proposed that congress shall appropriate $10,000 to an agricultural school in each congressional district to be established by the state. This fund is, of course, to be expended under state direction.

It is generally believed that this measure will be finally enacted, though the appropriation to each school may be somewhat reduced, probably to $5,000.

FAVORS REYNOLDS' BILL.

Alabama Governor Endorses Compulsory Education.

Montgomery, Ala., May 27.—"I am in favor of the Reynolds compulsory education bill," said Governor B. B. Comer, on Friday. "I think it should become a law, and believe it will at the July session of the legislature. It ought to pass and all of our people should be educated, so far as it is in the power of the state to provide learning for them." Thus did the executive put himself on record for a bill that is favored by the school men and women of the state, but has had some trouble in the legislature.

This bill was introduced in the legislature by H. E. Reynolds, chairman of the educational committee of the senate. It met with some opposition in the upper house, but passed by a comfortable vote, and Mr. Reynolds believes that it will get through the lower house.

Troops Dispatched to Mines.

Capetown, May 27.—The dispatch of a thousand regular troops to the Rand, where white miners are on a strike, has excited the whole country. The primary purpose of the dispatch of these troops is to overawe the Chinese miners should they prove restless, leaving the police and volunteers to deal with the white miners who are displaying brutality in their assaults upon the strike breakers, and are seriously damaging property. Fifty mines are now affected.

Boy Killed by Lightning.

Gainesville, Ga., May 27.—Johnny White, aged 12 years, a son of G. W. White, was struck and killed by lightning 4 miles from Flowry Branch, on the Banks place Thursday night. His two sisters were rendered unconscious and may not recover. The children were taking clothes from a line, when a bolt of lightning struck it, resulting in the death of the boy and the serious injury of the two girls.

Negro Shot and Killed His Wife.

Eatonton, Ga., May 27.—Bill Bledsoe, a negro, shot his wife through the left side Thursday at dinner so seriously that her death resulted from the wounds. The victim was at work in the yard of Alex S. Jenkins, as a cook, and had just finished dinner, when the husband, from whom she had been separated about two weeks, came up and, after a few words, shot her. He escaped immediately after the shooting.

STATUE TO GENERAL GORDON UNVEILED

Georgians Pay Tribute to Memory of Soldier Statesman.

SPLENDID MILITARY PAGEANT

Equestrian Statue of the Brave and Daring Confederate General Is Unveiled on Capitol Grounds In Atlanta—Witnessed by Thousands.

Atlanta, May 27.—Thousands of Georgians and many visitors from other states gathered in Atlanta Saturday to participate in and witness the exercises incident to the unveiling of the heroic bronze equestrian statue of General John B. Gordon, which stands majestically in reviewing attitude on the northwest corner of the state capitol grounds.

The unveiling ceremonies began promptly at noon around the monument, upon stands erected for the occasion, and were preceded by a splendid military pageant which stretched out to the length of a Memorial day parade.

The troops assembled for the parade at the junction of Peachtree and West Peachtree streets, and included the Fifth and Second regiments infantry, national guard of Georgia, four troops of Georgia cavalry, the Atlanta artillery battery, federal troops from Fort McPherson, cadets from the state university at Athens, from the Gordon institute at Barnesville, from the Marist college of Atlanta, hundreds of Atlanta school children, confederate veterans and many civic bodies united in doing honor to Georgia's typical soldier, statesman and patriot.

The exercises took place upon a specially erected grand stand, upon which sat the many guests specially invited for the occasion, including the members of General Gordon's family, ex-governors of Georgia and their families, judges of the United States courts, members of the John B. Gordon Monument association, Sculptor Solon H. Borglum, the officers of the Ladies' Memorial Association, the United Daughters of the Confederacy and many others.

Two hundred voices participated in the singing of the song, "The New South," especially written and arranged for this occasion.

The invocation by Rev. William F. Glenn and music by the band, was followed by the reading of the history of the John B. Gordon Monument association by its first president, Judge W. L. Calhoun, of Atlanta.

The principal address of the occasion was made by General Clement A. Evans, comrade and lifelong friend of General Gordon, who was with him on the famous 12th day of May, 1864, at Spotsylvania, when, by forcing General Robert E. Lee to the rear, the gallant Gordon probably saved the intrepid confederate leader's life.

The dedication poem was read by its author, Charles W. Hubner, of Atlanta, and the exercises closed with the formal delivery of the monument to the state by Captain N. E. Harris, of Macon, on the part of the commission, and its acceptance by Governor Terrell.

Fatal Fire at Somerset, Ky.

Somerset, Ky., May 27—The Mercer hotel at Burnside, Ky., near here, was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning, and Miss Bertha Goonds, a telephone operator, was burned to death. The telephone exchange was located in the hotel building and Miss Goonds was at work at the time the fire broke out. The fire so rapidly spread that she was unable to reach the street.

America's Chances Lessened.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 27—Ramond D. Little will not accompany the American Lawn Tennis challengers for the Davis cup to England this summer. America's chances to lift the cup are lessened by Little's inability to make the trip, and an endeavor will be made to find a first-class player to accompany Wright and Behr.

MEMORIAL SERMON BY DR. CRAIGHILL

He Delivered a Most Touching Memorial to Grand Army.

A LARGE CROWD PRESENT

Lew Wallace Post, Members of U. C. V., U. D. C., P. O. S. of A. and Gainesville Guards, Listen to Elegant Discourse at Holy Trinity Church.

Notwithstanding the fact that the baccalaureate sermon of the University of Florida was delivered at the Tabernacle Sunday morning, attracting a large and representative audience, the elegant new Holy Trinity church was also well filled, the occasion being the memorial sermon, delivered by Rev. Francis H. Craighill, the rector, before Lew Wallace Post, Grand Army of the Republic, under the auspices of which post the service was held.

Through invitation of the G. A. R. the meeting was attended by members of Stonewall Camp, United Confederate Veterans, both chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the Gainesville Guards, under command of Captain J. W. Blanding, the Guards acting as a guard of honor.

The members of the Grand Army post and P. O. S. of A. formed at the corner of West Liberty and Garden streets, where they were joined by the Guards, about forty strong. From this point the procession marched to the church, where seats had been reserved for them, the members of other organizations being in waiting at the church.

Dr. Craighill's Sermon.

Dr. Craighill took for his theme, "Whosoever Shall Seek to Save His Life Shall Lose It; and Whosoever Loses His Life Shall Preserve It."

In his address, which was one full of inspiring eloquence, the speaker commented upon things appropriate at this time. He commended highly these societies which had been organized to perpetuate these deeds of heroism and bravery, and to reverence the memory of those who were gone. He related touchingly and with favor to the diminishing feeling of dislike which existed for some time after the close of the great struggle between the North and the South, which has been more especially noticeable since the Spanish-American war, when the Northern boy and the Southern shoulder his musket and march side by side to preserve the dignity of the Union—the again united country, which no bond can sever.

During his discourse Dr. Craighill took occasion to pay reverence to the living as well as to the dead, his tribute to the old soldier being particulary impressive.

The music at this service was especially fine, including a solo by Mr. Cadwallader of the Episcopal choir.

In all, the service was one of the most interesting and most touching ever seen in Gainesville, and those who attended were deeply impressed.

Thursday's Exercises.

On Thursday morning, Union Memorial Day, Lew Wallace Post, accompanied by members of Stonewall Camp, U. C. V., Daughters of the Confederacy and friends, will proceed to the cemetery, where the graves of departed heroes of both armies will be strewn with flowers in loving memory of their living deeds.

BACON GOES TO WEST POINT.

Georgia Senator On Board of Visitors To Military Academy.

Washington, May 27.—Senator A. O. Bacon was in Washington Friday on his way to West Point. He was appointed a member of the board of visitors to inspect the National Military academy, and the work being carried on there, and will be present for a week during the annual examinations, which are approaching.

Senator Bacon also called at the war department in reference to a military instructor for Gordon college, Barnesville, Ga.

Asked about the latest developments and the outlook in national politics, Senator Bacon affirmed his belief in the fact that a platform calling for reasonable tariff revision and anti-centralization would furnish the democratic party winning issues in the next campaign..

"There are other issues," he said, "on which the party should outline its position, but these two are of the most vital concern to the country just now."

Cavalry Charge Strikers.

Johannesburg, May 27.—With a view of checking rioting at the Rand mines affected by the strike of white miners, the police issued a proclamation forbidding more than six persons to assemble within 300 yards of any mine. The strikers ignored the order, and marched on the Croesus mine with the supposed intention of attacking the men working them. When the police ordered them to disperse they refused, whereupon the cavalry charged them and they fled. The garrison at Potchestroom has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to reinforce the troops on the Rand.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT CLOSING OF UNIVERSITY OF STATE OF FLORIDA

Two Excellent Sermons Were Delivered During Sunday.

INTERESTING PROGRAM MONDAY

The Program Began in Morning With Declamation Contest—Concert in Afternoon—Oratorical Contest in the Evening, All Well Attended.

The Baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the University of the State of Florida was delivered on Sunday morning, May 26, by Reverend S. Y. Jameson, D. D., President of Mercer University. The services were held in the Tabernacle, and the building was completely filled, indicating an audience of about one thousand people. The pastor of the Methodist church, Reverend T. J. Nixon, opened the service with prayer, after which the congregation sang the Italian hymn, "Come, Though Almighty King." The music was lead by a male choir from the University, assisted by the orchestra.

President Sledd introduced the speaker who read a portion of the Third Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles and chose for his text the words of Peter, "Such as I Have Given Thee." Dr. Jameson is a pleasing and forcible speaker and as he unfolded and developed his theme the audience realized that it was listening to a sermon of great power. The following are some of the leading thoughts presented:

All young people indulge in fond dreams of what they would do if they possessed great riches and the dreams provide for great beneficiencies to the world. We imagine we speak the truth when we say what we would do were we as rich as Carnegie, but the real test of what we will do in the future is the use we make of our present possessions. If we are not faithful in what we now have we will not be faithful in our possessions in the future.

What, then, does a young man without wealth possess that he may give to the world, and by which he may judge of the sincerity of his desire to benefit his fellow men? There are certain things which we all possess in common, and which it is our duty to give to the world.

1st, The God given capacity to think. While all possess this capacity, few really use it, and the expression, "I did not think," is a common excuse for failure in life. The majority of people are content to follow in the paths made by others, accepting the results of their thinking and adopting their customs, thus failing to use the God given power to blaze out a path of their own. Let all young men form a life plan for the purpose of developing the power to the service of the world.

2nd. The capacity to work. All people are endowed with the native ability to direct energy along wisely laid plans, but few use this ability unless forced to do so by dire necessity. Let young men early adopt the habit of discharging fixed daily tasks in order to train themselves for intelligent service. "If we cannot give the world libraries, we can give it a life filled with painstaking efforts."

3d. The power to love and sympathize. Man's greatest need is sympathy, but too often we allow the fountains of love and good will to dry up. Affection unbestowed always diminishes. Numerous instances were cited where sympathy bestowed at the right time had saved young men from a life of despair to a life of usefulness and power. Sympathy is the teacher's greatest asset in his work of building men and women. Garfield was lead into the halls of a college when a young man by the sympathetic statement of its president, "We will be glad to have you."

Dr. Jameson closed his address with a strong appeal to the young men of the graduating class to go out into the world and use these God given possessions in the spirit of the words of St. Peter, "Such as I Have I Give."

Reverend Hay of the Presbyterian church offered the closing prayer and after singing the doxology, the congregation was dismissed by Dr. Jameson.

Sunday Evening Session.

The annual sermon before the University Y. M. C. A. was delivered Sunday evening by the Rev. Mr. Hay of Gainesville. After the invocation by the Rev. Mr. Craighill, and a hymn led by the University Sextette, Dr. Hay made a strong appeal to the young men of the Y. M. C. A., basing his remarks on I John, II, 14, "I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you and ye have overcome the wicked one."

Mr. Hay pointed out that Christianity appeals particularly to strong young men, and showed how Jesus was an ideal young man because of his manliness and strength. Young men have physical contests that tests their strength; Jesus Christ, as a young man, had contests and struggles that tested His strength and in all He came out conqueror. The young man, who is to enter a physical or intellectual contest, must sacrifice some of his desire in order that he may prepare himself for the struggle; he is called upon by Christ to sacrifice many of his desires that he may win in the contest with temptation. The young men of today have that "call to battle." The warriors needed are active, brave, courageous, strong, young men, young men who will add to their victories on the athletic field to the victories in their college halls, who will to these and similar victories add victories over self and over the wicked one.

The sermon closed with a stirring account of the victories Christianity is winning and of how yearly more and more young men are seeking for its standard.

The exercises of the evening were ended by a prayer by President Sledd, a prayer of gratitude for the past, a petition for future victories on the part of the members of the Y. M. C. A. After singing the doxology the audience was dismissed with the benediction by Dr. Hay.

The Declamation Contest.

Monday morning at 10 o'clock the annual declamation contest took place between members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes. A very handsome prize presented by the trustees will be awarded on Tuesday morning to the winner, whose name will be announced at the same time. The judges were Major Thomas, Col. Morrow, and the Rev. Mr. Nixon. The contestants and the titles of their selections were as follows: J. H. Vidal of Gainesville, "Regelus to the Roman Senate;" W. B. Martin of Watertown, "Henry Grady," N. Barrs of Gainesville, "Consolidation;" W. W. Gibbs of St. Petersburg, "Visions of War;" S. S. Smith of Aradondo, "Spartacus to the Gladiators;" O. R. Albright of Gainesville, "The American Republic;" S. E. Jenkins of Lake City, "Eulogy on Washington."

The pleasure of the audience was enchanced by several selections extremely well rendered by the Duval Orchestra.

Concert at Chapel.

A goodly audience gathered in the University chapel on Monday afternoon to enjoy a concert given by the Duval Orchestra. Just outside the building a great many carriages were stationed, the occupants of which could hear as well as those inside. This concert proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever held in Gainesville, and all were sorry that more numbers were not rendered. The program follows:

1. "The Pike," march by Laurendean.
2. Briday Rose Overture, by Lavallee. Trombone solo, by T. J. Mott, Jr. "Good Night, Beloved, Good Nght."
3. American Fantasties, by Benedix.
4. "The Tenderfoot," by Anderson.
5. "The Rattler March," by Held.

Evening Oratorical Contest.

Oratorical contests between the members of the junior and of the senior classes took place on Monday evening in the Tabernacle. The occasion was enlivened by the Duval Orchestra. The contestants and the subject of their orations follow:

From the Junior class—C. W. Fishof of Gainesville, "The Alchemy of Thought;" R. F. Persons of Ft. White, "The Industrial Department of the South;" R. J. Carter, "The Future South;" R. B. Carter of Marianna, "The Future University of the State of Florida;" J. B. Earman of West Palm Beach, "Child Labor in the Southern Cotton Mills."

From the Senior Class—T. Z. Cason of Island Grove, "The Progress of Democracy;" M. L. Moremen of Switzerland, "Socialism of the Future;" H. Gunter of Pierson, "Educational Tendencies;" C. C. Tompkins of Jasper, "University Education."

The decision of the judges will be announced and handsome medals given by the trustees will be awarded to each of the winners Thursday morning.

Graduation Exercises Today.

The program will be concluded this morning, when the graduating exercises will be held at the Tabernacle, with baccalaureate address by President Andrew Sledd of the University. At these exercises the medals and degrees will be conferred.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the exercises, which begin at 10 o'clock.

When You Take Cold

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least, not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

S.S.S. FORTY YEARS OF CURES

Long experience and thorough testing have proven S. S. S. to be the King of blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics. For nearly half a century S. S. S. has been used in the treatment of blood and skin diseases of every character, and so satisfactory have been the results that it is now the best known and most widely used blood medicine on the market. S. S. S. attracted attention as soon as it was placed on the market by curing promptly those diseases for which it was recommended, and we have so jealously guarded its first good reputation, by keeping it up to its standard in manufacture, that it now has the unequalled and pleasing record of "Forty Years Of Cures." For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other diseases due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, there is nothing that equals S. S. S. It counteracts and removes the germs and poisons, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the trouble permanently, and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak or anaemic and unable to nourish the system as it should, S. S. S. supplies it with the needed properties, and being a bracing, invigorating tonic it builds up the entire system. It goes to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches deep-seated and inherited cases on which the ordinary sarsaparillas and tonics have little or no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is an absolutely safe medicine. It enjoys the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you are in need of a blood remedy begin the use of S. S. S., the medicine that has proven its worth by its record of forty years of cures. Book on the blood and any medical advice you wish. No charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

TWENTY GREEKS ARRIVED SUNDAY

They Came from South to Accept Employment on Sewer Work.

TO TAKE PLACE OF STRIKERS

They are an Able-Bodied Set, and Went Cheerfully and Industriously to Work—Large Force Now Employed—Work Progressing Nicely.

Notwithstanding the fact that a strike among the Greek laborers engaged on the sewer work a week ago, the majority of whom have left the city, another consignment arrived Sunday, and Monday morning took the places of their striking brethren.

There were about twenty in the Sunday party, which with the dozen or more Greeks who refused to go out on account of being satisfied, makes a force of about thirty-five Greeks now employed.

Contractor Beeman stated that those Greeks who did strike for higher wages, or at least the majority of them, were of an inferior class, physically, and he did not shed any tears when they quit, nor did he beg them to remain. Those Greeks now at work are able-bodied men, capable of earning a decent day's salary, which they are receiving.

Work is progressing nicely on the sewer work now. There is plenty of labor and plenty of material, with the result that everything is running smoothly. Work, under the favorable conditions which now exist, will be finished about July 1.

MASON TISON'S HORSE.

"Football" is a Winner, and Will Be Put on Track Saturday.

J. Mason Tison, formerly of this city but now engaged in business in Ocala, has recently acquired a fine trotting horse, "Football," which is said to be as fine as any horseflesh in Florida.

Mr. Tison, who was in Gainesville a couple of days ago, states that the horse has a record of 2:06 in harness, and that he will put the animal on the track for a purse of $400 next Saturday. The event will transpire on the Ocala track, and is creating a great deal of interest between the sportsmen throughout that section of the State.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

THAT TIRED FEELING.

MRS. M. WISE.

"That tired feeling' is a sure sign that the sys em needs regulating. A dull, droopy man or woman needs something to get the blood jumping once more. The whole body is clogged with impurities, but the seat of the trouble is the stomach. It has been gradually letting down, only half doing its work, and the result is that the kidneys, liver and bowels absorb the undigested food and then the blood becomes muddy and sluggish. From one to three bottles of Cooper's New Discovery will get the stomach back in shape. The tired feeling will surely disappear if this is done.

This letter tells what a woman thinks who tried it:

"I suffered from loss of appetite, poor digestion and general breaking down. I was so weak I could scarcely get about. I felt tired and worn out nearly all the time. Upon hearing of the great things Cooper's New Discovery was doing for others afflicted as I was, I began to use it. By the time the first bottle was gone my condition was immensely improved. I now feel strong again and do my own work with ease. Please accept my sincere thanks." Mrs. M. Wise, 1217 Norwood St., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Cooper preparations enjoy a larger sale than any other medicine.—That seems to prove their efficiency.

How Birds Learn to Sing.

Do young birds learn their songs by direct imitation of their parents or is the power of song an innate quality? Some observations made by W. H. Hudson on a species of tinamou (Rhynchotus rufescens) throw some light on the question. This species has a peculiar and characteristic song or call of its own, and, according to Mr. Hudson's observations, it does not require to learn it. A young bird was taken from the nest when just breaking the shell and brought up in a house where it could never have had the chance of hearing its parents. Yet long before it was full grown it would retire to a dark corner of the room and give its characteristic song in great perfection. Here the song must have been innate. The experiments of the Hon. Daines Barrington, in which various species were reared under linnets and learned and sang the linnet song instead of their own, suggest, on the other hand, that the young bird learns by direct imitation.—London Globe.

An Aldrich Autograph Story.

Thomas Bailey Aldrich was always ready to grant a request for his autograph when he believed that it came from an honest admirer who desired it as a personal token or for his or her—preferably her—private collection. It was the professional autograph hunter, who sought a specimen of his handwriting for commercial purposes, setting pitfalls for the unwary author, whom he tried, not always successfully, to avoid. On one occasion Mr. Aldrich received a pathetic letter in a woman's hand, telling of the death of a little daughter and asking the poet if he would send in his own handwriting a verse or two from "Bable Bell" to help assuage the grief of the afflicted household. His sympathies were touched, and he wrote out the whole poem and sent it on its comforting mission. A few weeks later he saw in an autograph dealer's shop the identical manuscript displayed for sale at a good round price.

Fairbanks is great on platitudes. He declared lately, in a speech to the cotton-mill men, that prosperity will continue if the nation is wise.

The Cortelyou boom for President will have a good chance to be aired at the dinner to be given to him in New York by postmasters of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

Ohio Democrats are not losing any sleep as to whether Willie Taft or Fire Alarm Foraker will get the Ohio delegates to the Republican national convention, but they enjoy seeing Boss Cox on the anxious seat.

No wonder Attorney-General Bonaparte is rather slow in tackling the trusts, for the next one on his list is the dynamite trust and to hammer it—well you can see what may occur.

The American Baptist Missionary Union calls uopn President Roosevelt to make inquiries into the reason why the Congo question has not been settled. That is rather a delicate proposition for Teddy to reply to.

Secretary of the Interior Garfield declares the lower ranks in the civil service are overpaid and the higher ones underpaid, but perhaps that comes from never having been in the "lower ranks."

Thanks to the efforts of Senator McCreary, the electon ballots in future will not be a yard or more in length. The Alachua man can be depended upon to do the proper thing at the right time.—Palatka Times-Herald.

Boss Cox and the Cincinnati boodle contingent of the Republican party have all up in the air over the lightning changes in the political situation in Ohio and the wires are kept hot with sizzling messages to and from the White House by son-in-law Longworth. Let us have peace.

Those North Carolina office holders who the Democrats charged with too great partisan activity are to be warned by the Civil Service Commission to keep strictly out of politics. As postmasters, assistant postmasters, collectors of internal revenue and collectors of customs are not included in the classified service, the warning would seem to be an administration bluff.

The Sun contained in its report of the Legislature a day or two ago the statement that Senate bill No. 437, incorporating the town of Tyler, was introduced by Senator McCreary, but this was an error. The bill in question was introduced by Senator Willis of Levy, and Senator McCreary committed various amendments of material importance before he would agree not to oppose it.

The coal roads, known as the anthracite coal trust, seem determined to defy the law which goes into effect May 1, 1908, which prohibits railroads from carrying, in interstate commerce, any commodity, other than timber, mined or produced by them. The Delaware and Hudson has just purchased coal lands costing $9,000,000 and it would seem it should be arranging to dispose of what it now owns.

TARIFF WAR.

While our standpatter Republican friends are enjoying the usufruct of their alliance with the tariff-protected trusts, the tariff war with other countries is certainly and gradually undermining our foreign commerce. The State Department officials are in a very unsatisfactory condition and nothing can be done to mend them until Congress acts, the officials say, there is good reason for believing that "France has decided steadily to increase the duties up on American imports to such an extent that in many instances they are likely to be prohibitive." As the Republican majority in the House of Representatives is opposed to tariff reform and the Senate has refused to ratify the treaties for reciprocity with other nations, the prospect of the coming Congress any law that will reduce the tariff schedules, however high and unreasonable, is out of the question.

The temporary arrangement with Germany will only exist until the next Congress has had an opportunity to pass on a reciprocity arrangement with that country, or enact a general tariff revision law that will admit imports from Germany on a basis that will satisfy that country and thus permit our exports to enter there at the minimum rates.

If the standpat faction prevails at the next Republican national convention, and that can hardly be doubted as nearly all the leaders are for "letting well enough alone," the present incipient tariff war, will reach an acute stage and the real fight for commercial supremacy will be a very serious question.

To leave the tariff to be settled by "the friends of protection" will mean no settlement at all, but merely a continuation of the Republican policy, heretofore and now prevailing of protecting the trusts and making the balance of us pay the tax that trust high prices entail. The only relief that can come to those who feel that the present high cost of living is beyond their ability to pay or so trenches on their income as to compel the relinquishment of even the most simple and inexpensive pleasures, is through young for Democratic candidates who favor tariff reform not only because the Democratic platform will declare for tariff reform, but also through the inherited traditions of the Democratic party on the tariff issue from the beginning of the Government.

Senator Tillman would like to see a Southern man nominated by the Democrats for President, but thinks he will have to content himself with Culberson of Texas, Hoke Smith of Georgia or Daniel of Virginia for the second place on the ticket. All of these able and honest Democrats are quite fit to aspire to the Presidency. The nominee for Vice-President should always measure up to the standard fixed for President, for in the future, as in the past, the Vice-President may be called upon to serve as President.

There seems to be quite a boom for Governor Johnson of Minnesota for the Democratic nomination for President in consequence of the article published in the Commoner of May 17, which states that Governor Johnson can carry Minnesota at the primaries and at the national election. This would seem to indicate that Mr. Bryan has not yet decided to be a candidate and like other Democrats is ready to select whoever can best unite the party, provided he comes up to the Democratic requirements of ability and honesty of purpose.

There was a record broken in the Postoffice Department last week. The Postmaster-General turned in to the Treasury $22,359,120, the largest amount for one quarter in the history of the office. This was not remarkable for the department is growing all the time and the receipts naturally increase. But the amount exceeded the expenditures by $1,800,815. This is a record sure enough. It indicates a good business administration and a financial index to the prosperity of the country it is decidedly encouraging. Now that the postoffice is making an effort to get on even a better business footing, more carefully weighing the mails and adjusting railway payments to correspond, there seems a prospect of its becoming actually a self-supporting department. This will be cheerful enough news to the general public, but it has a rather ominous ring for the express companies, telegraph and telephone companies and others of the great public utilities now run at immense profit by private corporations and whose constant claim has been in the past that the Government could never do such work as they are doing cheaply and at a profit. Postal service is about the cheapest great service the public enjoys, and no one can say that it is not about the best also. It is nevertheless inferior to the postal services of England, Germany and France, for it permits a lot of rapacious express companies to skim the cream of the service and skin the people of the United States.

MISPRINT BANK BILLS

Errors That Slip Past the Watchful Treasury Inspectors.

THE MOST CURIOUS BLUNDER.

A National Bank Note Which Is For $50 on One Side and For $100 on the Other Side—How the Error Was Made and How It Was Discovered.

Imperfect or misprinted bank notes sometimes, though rarely, slip past the eyes of the inspectors in the United States bureau of engraving and printing. It is said that a fifty dollar national bank note was the most remarkable misprint that ever escaped the government employees and found its way into circulation.

It was discovered in a peculiar way. A clerk in a Chicago hotel in making up his accounts one day found a discrepancy he couldn't explain. He placed the pile of bills on his left hand side, and as he counted each one turned the note over and deposited it on a pile at his right.

He found that when he counted from left to right his cash exactly balanced, but when he counted it back again a shortage of $50 was shown. After spending two hours in a vain endeavor to find out what was the matter he called in the manager.

The manager had no better success. Backward and forward he counted the bills, but always with the same result—one time the cash balanced and the next the shortage was developed. Finally each bill was examined separately, both obverse and reverse.

And then the mystified men discovered the cause of their trouble. One of the bills had the design of $50 on the obverse and that of $100 on the reverse.

The clerk had received the bill as $100.

The United States treasury was communicated with, and it was admitted that such a bill was out and that the department had a record of it. It was discovered in 1890 that one sheet of bank notes of the denomination of $50 and $100, printed for the Aetna National bank of Kansas City, Mo., had been reversed in the press. One plate bore the obverse of a fifty dollar bill at the top and the obverse of a hundred dollar bill at the bottom. The other plate bore the reverse of the two notes.

After each sheet was printed it was laid aside to dry before being run through for the obverse printing. In some way the pressmen turned one sheet upside down, with the result that two misprinted bills came forth, one with a fifty dollar obverse and hundred dollar reverse, the other with a hundred dollar obverse and a fifty dollar reverse.

The cashier of the bank was the first to become aware of the error. He found that something was wrong after he had paid out the note with the fifty dollar face and the hundred dollar back by coming across the one with the hundred dollar face and the fifty dollar back. The note held by the cashier was returned to the treasury and destroyed, a perfect note being issued in its place.

The other note is now in the possession of a collector of paper money, who values it at several thousand dollars.

In the sixties an error of a similar nature occurred in which a bank note was printed with the ten dollar obverse and a twenty dollar reverse. While this bill is not as great a rarity as the other, still its owner would not part with it for a sum much less than that at which the fifty dollar bill is valued.

The reason why it is less valuable than the other in the eyes of the collectors is the belief that more bills like it were issued, and probably some of them are still in existence. Of the former denomination the owner is absolutely certain that his specimen is unique, its companion error having been destroyed, but there is no known record of the redemption of the error with the ten dollar face. It is reasonably certain that at least four of them got into circulation.

Errors were found in the design of the 1880 silver certificates. These were rather the fault of the engraver than the printer.

On the 1880 notes is found a treasury seal entirely different from any other ever used by the government. The key, which is one of the most important symbols of the seal, shows a handle at the left hand side instead of to the right, as on all others.

The shield is of different shape and the stars are larger. The two ends of the band surrounding the symbols are fastened with a buckle, which in no other instance plays a part in the design of a treasury seal. This is the only issue of notes on which the peculiar seal was used, and collectors of paper money include them among the errors or freaks.

The one, two and five dollar certificates and the ten dollar legal tender bills of the present issue occur with what are known as inverted backs. As a matter of fact this is a wrong description, as they are really inverted fronts, for the backs of all bills are printed first. These bills are sought by collectors, who pay a premium for them when in fine condition.

Another curiosity is a one dollar note of the Second National bank of Ravenna, O. This lacks the signatures of both the president and cashier, although it was generally circulated and never challenged.

A one dollar national bank note of the First National bank of Fall River, Mass., also lacks both signatures, which seems not to have interfered with its being offered and accepted as money.

Still another one dollar note of the First National bank of Indianapolis, Ind., lacks the signature of the president only.

Slight as are these errors or omissions, they give additional value to such bills in the eyes of collectors of paper money, who are always glad to pay a premium for them.

It is not known how many of the bills of the present issue are in circulation with inverted design, but it is not thought that there are many.

A legal tender note of 1869 shows an oddity. On the face of the note is a portrait of Webster, while to the right is a representation of Rolfe presenting Pocahontas to Queen Elizabeth. At the bottom of the center is a small eagle. Upon inverting the bill the eagle presents a very faithful resemblance to the head of a donkey.

Whether this was intended by the engraver as a joke is not known, but the resemblance is so close that it indicates premeditation on his part.—Washington Post.

A FAMOUS SERMON.

Dr. Dod's Compulsory Discourse From the Text "Malt."

Dr. Dod was an old time English clergyman, incumbent of a parish close to Cambridge, who had made himself very unpopular with a certain class of the university students by his forcible sermons against drunkenness. A short time after the delivery of one of these philippics the good doctor was walking toward Cambridge when he met several undergraduates, who thought they saw a chance for revenge. Accordingly they stopped him and with mock politeness urged him then and there to deliver a sermon. They insisted on his preaching to them from a hollow tree on a text of their own selection, the one word "Malt."

Resistance being useless, the doctor quietly obeyed and, assuming his pulpit manner, delivered the following sermon:

"Beloved, let me crave your attention. I am a little man and come at a short notice to preach from a short text to a thin congregation in an unworthy pulpit. Beloved, my text is 'Malt.' I cannot divide it into sentences, there being none; nor into words, there being but one. I must therefore divide it into letters.

"M is moral. A is allegorical. L is literal. T is theological.

"The moral is to teach you good manners. Therefore, M—my masters, A—all of you, L—leave off, T—tippling.

"The allegorical is when one thing is spoken of and another meant. The thing spoken of is malt; the thing meant is the spirit of malt, which you make M—your meat, A—your apparel, L—your liberty, and T—your trust.

"The literal is, according to the letters, M—much, A—ale, L—little, T—thought.

"The theological is according to the effects it works: M—murder in some, A—adultery in others L—looseness of life in most, and T—treachery in many.

"I shall conclude the subject, first by way of exhortation: M—my masters, A—all of you, L—listen, T—to my text.

"Second, by way of caution: M—my masters, A—all of you, L—look for, T—the truth.

"Thirdly, by way of communicating the truth, which is this: A drunkard is the annoyance of modesty, the spoil of civility, the destruction of reason, the robber's agent, the almshouse benefactor, his wife's sorrow, his children's trouble, his own shame, his neighbor's scoff, a walking swill bowl, the picture of a beast, the monster of a man."

Then Dr. Dod descended from his arboreal pulpit and resumed his walk, leaving a very shamefaced and crestfallen congregation to follow at a respectful distance. He was never waylaid again to deliver extemporaneous sermons.—Scrap Book.

YEGGMAN BAND TEAR UP TOWN.

Hornwell Was Terrorized, But Bandits Met Their Fate.

Rochester, N. Y., May 27.—An attempt was made Friday morning by a gang of armed yeggmen to loot and terrorize the city of Hornell, as a result of which Night Watchman John Hendy, of the Hornell Street Railroad company, was fatally shot.

Night Watchman Thomas Kelly, at the silk mills, was severely beaten; several citizens were injured, and three yeggmen, Joseph Carroll, of Brooklyn; Raymond English, of Rochester, and Harry Thomas, of New York city, were arrested, English and Thomas having been wounded with buckshot in a running fight with the police.

The robbers first appeared at a grocery stare and meat market, where they blew open a safe and obtained $40. The residence of William F. Purdy was next entered, where some articles of value were taken. The gang then broke into the Steuben silk mills, where they were surprised by Night Watchman Kelly, whom they beat into insensibility. They secured no plunder at the silk mills, and later appeared at the street railway company's offices, where they were confronted by Night Watchman Hendy. Firing began on both sides, and Hendy was fatally shot.

By this time the town had been aroused and pursuit of the robbers was begun. They jumped on a moving freight and the police and posse followed on a switch engine. One of the robbers was seen to jump into the river from the freight train. He was followed by a policeman, who swam 100 yards, and arrested the man at the point of his pistol. This prisoner is Joseph Carroll.

The two other robbers escaped in the direction of Canisto. The Canisto police were notified and met them with shotguns, and Thomas and English were wounded with buckshot before they would give up.

AS TO RHEUMATISM.

A well-defined case of rheumatism is generally recognized by medical men as one of the most difficult problems with which they have to deal. It has been found, however, by the experience of able physicians that much benefit results from putting the sufferer from rheumatism under the following treatment: Before each meal there is administered an antirheumatic tablet composed of 2½ grains Sodium Bi-Carbonate, 3 grains Salicylic Acid and 1 minim Wine of Colchicum. This is to be followed immediately by a glass of water. After each meal the patient is given a tablespoonful of a preparation of ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 dram Fluid Extract of Horse Nettle, 1 oz. Amet Cordial, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 14 ozs. water. The treatment, continued for a month, is said to give most gratifying results, even in unusually stubborn cases. The prescription given above any good druggist can compound.

Stolypin Summons Governors.

Chamberlain's Health Improved.

St. Raphael, France, May 27—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, who have been sojourning here for some time past, will return to England in a few days. Mr. Chamberlain is very much improved in health, but it is probable that a considerable time must elapse before he will be able to re-enter public life.

Howerton dissolved the forty-seventh general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church and with the singing of "Blessed Be the Tie that Binds" and the pronouncing of the benediction, a memorable session of the body went down into history.

PLOT AGAINST KAISER.

Thirty-Five Russian Students Are Arrested by the Police.

London, May 27.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Mail says:

The arrest recently of several Russian students here was the result of accumulated evidence that they were associated with the Russo-German anarchist's plot to assassinate the kaiser.

Definite proofs were found that they were unduly concerning themselves with the person and the movements of the emperor. Thirty-five, including three women, were arrested. Twenty-five have since been released upon the establishment of their comparative innocence. Six of the others were expelled from the country. The police had to act harshly in making the arrests as one man and woman tried desperately to escape.

Injunction Dissolved.

New York, May 27—The injunction obtained by Walter N. Lawrence, the theatrical manager, restraining Henry E. Dixey from appearing under any other management, was dissolved in a decision of the appellate division of the supreme court. Dixey is now free to appear in vaudeville. Dixey was engaged by Lawrence in 1905 to appear for three seasons in "The Man on the Box." Dixie left the company a few months ago. Justice Ingraham said that the contract between Lawrence and Dixey was not binding in character.

THE POCKET SAVINGS BANK EPIDEMIC RAGES FIERCELY

.....IN GAINESVILLE.....

Beneficent epidemics are scarce, but such a one has struck Gainesville, and people of every station and occupation have the fever.

It is most interesting and instructive to study the constantly changing line of applicants for Pocket Banks as it files through The Sun's business office. There is the mother, bringing her daughter with her and securing a bank for the girl, another for herself, and inquiring anxiously whether she may have another for the boy who is at work. She receives it promptly.

Boys come—some are steady, serious-faced chaps who have begun to think on their own account, and who ask questions about the operation of the scheme which show the results of rubbing up against the world.

Then the High School girls and boys, gay and active, while the workman and business man "slip in" during the noon hour to get a bank for the boy or girl at home, after asking one or two leading questions to make sure there is no joke about the 25 cents.

.....THE PLAN IN OUTLINE.....

A HANDSOME NICKEL POCKET SAVINGS BANK and an order on

PHIFER BROS., BANKERS

Good for an additional 25 cents when a deposit of one dollar or more in cash is made, will be given to everyone who avail themselves of this opportunity. Make an investigation and you will never regret it.
